2013 MINISTRY TEAMS

Give us your input today!

Last week Bro. Kelly announced we would be asking for your input for the next 3 weeks concerning our 2014 Ministry Team enlistment. Volunteer sign up sheets are in the WRC foyer along with extra copies of the Ministry Team description sheets which we passed out last week. Please sign up for any and all teams that you would like to serve on. As you sign up, please keep in mind the following...

1. Signing the lists does not guarantee you will be asked to serve on a ministry team as there are a limited number of spaces. However, you still may be asked to help with that ministry as sign up lists will be given to the various Ministry Teams so they will know who indicated an interest. Also, should a vacancy arise during the year, we would more than likely consult this original sign up list for a replacement.
2. To serve on an elected Ministry Team of the church you must be a member of the church, not just an active attender.
3. We ask that all who accept a position on a ministry team commit to faithfully attend planning meetings and support the projects planned by that team unless providentially hindered. If you have questions about the frequency of meetings / projects, please contact the staff liaison for that team.

So, please, give us a hand by providing one or more bags of candy and/or providing your trunk on that night to help us bless our community.
